MASSAGE BODY TREATMENTS

CHAIR MASSAGE

A convenient and revitalizing form of massage therapy designed to provide quick relief from stress and tension. It is performed with the recipient seated in a specially designed, portable massage chair and focuses on the upper body, including the neck, shoulders, back, and arms. It offers a time-efficient solution for individuals seeking a brief but effective massage experience, making it well-suited for corporate settings, events, or any environment where a full-length massage may not be practical.
